Editor's Note

At the onset of the pandemic information technology was one of the people used to communicate, to buy basic necessities and to receive vital information that could be used to help people in times of emergency.

This issue of Information technology journal presents different mobile applications. One of this is the "BeeSafe: Safety Application with Real Time location Tracking" presented by Almario, Pablo, Santos JD, Santos KB and Tanig this is application will help you to track your love one's.

Bongaling, Retita, Taon, Hipolito and Del Poso develop an application that can help the new student of Baliuag University to locate the different office inside the main campus.

Another mobile application has been developed for Baliwag Transit in order for the commuter to reserved seat, this application will help to avoid queuing of passengers at the terminal. An entertain mobile app, CampusRookie: videoGame Tour Guide for the Incoming Freshmen in Baliuag University is develop by Limkinglam, Diaz, Lapat, Yuen and Del Poso, this game application will be a great to the first year to be familiarized themselves in the different offices while they are enjoying. Another application is created for the Baliuag University to prepared in the student in a face to face classes. Bernardo, Malabuyo, Reyes, Tiglao, Villarama, and Santos developed School ID with E-Wallet of Baliuag University. Due to the pandemic experienced by children, the use of gadgets like cellphones is unavoidable. Lasco, Mislang, Arce, Torres, Estrella, Rafael and Vicente developed Bound: An Application Limiter with Usage Statistics that will limit the use of cellular phone to children.

ALDP